VALUE:

Dave Cherry of Big O Tires values the networking aspect of the Association. Having a record year is due not only because they are great businessmen, but is because of the word-of-mouth recommendations and referrals from networks such as the Tri-Valley Executives' Association.

CLASSIFICATION:

Larry Smario began his career in high school horticulture classes. After graduating he started college at Cal Poly, but quit shortly before being drafted to serve in Viet Nam. When his tour of duty was complete, the Veterans paid for him to go to the College of San Mateo.

While working at a retail nursery in Castro Valley, Larry met a gentleman who began teaching him the tree care side of the business. Larry started off doing side jobs and put in enough time to get his contractor's license in 1970.

He bought a nursery, turning it into a wholesale nursery, from which he operated his landscaping and tree service business. His specialty became re-landscaping gas stations, until it was demanding too much of his time and took attention away from other clients.

Larry Smario Landscape and Tree Service does all sorts of tree care, from trimming to stump removal; landscaping, including sprinklers and sod guaranteed for 1 full year; cement work, including decorative stamped concrete; and fence work.

To have Larry evaluate your trees and other yard projects, call him at (510) 582-3008.
