ATTENDANCE:

For some of us, the value of attending meetings is implicit; others may need reminding that they are a valuable part of the organization and that they are missed.

Section 6.12 of By-Laws of the TVEA state:

"Attendance: It is the duty of every Member to be represented at all regular meetings of the Association. The failure of any Member to be represented by its Active or Associate Representative at any three (3) consecutive meetings or at a minimum of seventy-five percent (75%) of the weekly meetings during a calendar quarter, may be cause for expulsion."

The energy of the Members is what makes each of us get up early every Thursday morning and it wouldn't be the same if you weren't there.

Take ownership of the group. It's not enough to just pay your quarterly dues; you should take pride in being a participating member. There are other executives who would like to get into this group; the TVEA is not an obligation, it's a privilege.
